The business session was called to order by President Ann Evans of Sherwill 4-H Community Club. Mary Glass, Vice-president, led the pledges. The newly elected officers were installed with a candlelighting service by james Hancock, III, also of Sherwill 4-H Community Club. The meeting concluded with a slide presentation of a 4-H exchange trip the Brookville Club took to Westmoreland County last summer.

The Rocks Quartet

December 10th marked the last service of the Rocks Quartet for 1974, as they sung for the Eastern Stars, Pamplin, Va. in their annual Christmas meeting. The Quartet had many wonderful and interesting experiences during the year. A highlight occuring November 22nd at the Appomattox country music festival sponsored by the Appomattox JC's when they received a trophy for first place in the vocal catagory. The Quartet has traveled throughout the state and into the states of Tennessee and West Virginia during the year. We want to express our sincere appreciation to the people of Appomattox County and surrounding area for their continued support and prayers as we travel from place to place.

The Quartet will begin 1975 by having a song service at their home church, Rocks Baptist Church, Pamplin, January 4th, 7:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited.

Leader Training Session

The County Extension Homemakers held a Leader Training Program Tuesday at the Extension office. Mrs. Grace Williams of the Pamplin Club and Mrs. Charlotte Jennings of the County Lane Club are getting household tips from Carey Carson who conducted the training session.

Funds Available For Transporters Of Handicapped

Private, non-profit organizations, capable of providing transportation to the elderly and handicapped, have the opportunity to apply for a portion of the $407,000 in federal funds recently awarded to the State of Virginia.

A total of $20,000,000 has been appropriated by the Urban Mass Transportation Administration (UMTA) and is available on an 80% Federal - 20% Local matching basis. The Virginia Department of Highways and Transportation is administering the state funds.

Any private, non-profit organization interested in applying for the funds should contact Harry Jarvis, Transportation Planner for the Central Virginia Planning District Commission (CVPDC). as soon as possible.

Proposals must be submitted to the Virginia Department of Highways and Transportation (VDHT) by February 17. A clearinghouse review, however, must be held on applications before submittal to VDHT, thus requiring a January 1 deadline for notice of intent to file an application.

The CVPDC serves as the clearinghouse agency for the district and reviews all applications for state and federal funds. The review is only for coordination and prevention of duplicating efforts. The CVPDC has no power to approve or disapprove grant applications.

According to R. G. Corder, State Transportation Coordinator, each proposal submitted for the project will be examined very thoroughly in order to assure effective use of the funds.

Organizations applying for the funds must provide 20% of the total project cost and provide service within a recognized urban area.

Providing transportation for the elderly and handicapped has been cited as a need in jurisdictional workshops in conjunction with CENTRAL VIRGINIA TOMORROW in which needs and priorities of the area have been discussed.

Holiday Driving Tips

Richmond, Va. – Holiday driving poses special problems for motorists. Heavy traffic, winter weather and drinking drivers combine to make Christmas the second most fatal holiday period of the year.

In 1973, 18 fatalities were reported on Virginia's highways during the four-day Christmas holiday, according to the Highway Safety Division of Virginia.

"Unfortunately, alcohol is all too prevalent on our highways during the Christmas and New Years holidays," says John T. Hanna, Division director.

"Any motorist anticipating an evening of drinking should make provisions to get home safely. We hope that party hosts will find their guests an alternate way home if necessary," concluded the safety official.

Year round safe driving habits that should not be forgotten in the Christmas rush include:

Defensive driving. This also applies to parking lots which are usually congested with shoppers.

Prepare your car for cold weather driving. A mechanically sound vehicle is necessary at all times of the year.

Wear safety belts. Lap and should belts protect passengers and drivers when mishaps occur. Infants and toddlers should travel in protective devices designed for their size.

"Since Christmas and New Years are seasons for good cheer, let this reflect in your driving habits. Don't let your driving suffer because of late hours or shopping hassles. Calm and courteous driving is especially important during this hectic season, concluded the safety official.

Q – What are some of the advantages of a Veterans Administration GI home loan?

A – The agency guarantees 60 per cent up to a maximum of $12,500 of such loans, no down payment is required usually, VA appraises the house to determine its reasonable value and there usually is a long repayment period resulting in lower monthly payments.

Conference For Military Retirees

The Office of Veterans Affairs at Central Virginia Community College in conjunction with the Division of Humanities and Social Sciences will hold a conference for the benefit of all military retirees in the Lynchburg area. Retirees from all branches of the Armed Forces are welcome to attend. A special invitation to disabled veterans is extended. The purpose of the conference will be to provide information concerning benefits for military retirees and former servicemen on disability pension. The meeting will take place at the Central Virginia Community College Student Lounge, Saturday, December 14, 1974 at 10 a.m.

Professor Edward A. Peniche of the college will give a presentation of the "Minutes of the Fort Lee Retiree Council."
